Everybody knows that we have been "Ealting the Dickens" in the Clothing trade, demoralizing the eld-fachioused "HIGH-PRICE" Clothlers and educating the people with regard to the "MODERN IDEA" of "A LARGE BUSINESS AND SMALL PROFITS," There's no use talk-ing about it, "SOLID FACTS," MONEST ADVERTISING and LOW PRICES cap-Send for Illustrations ture the trade, of the Society's Twenty Year Tontine policies

We've been making things pretty lively for our "slow-coach" competitors aircoady, but to-day and to-morrow we've going to "MAKE THINGS MUM" if possible, and WE think WE can do it if anybody can.

SOLVING THE PROBLEM

We think WE can do it if anybody can.
We don't expect to make any mensy The DAY, but we'll keep our boys busy anybody and the way we propose to do it is to self about Six Hundred Fine "Bannockburn" and "Blarney" Scotck Cheviot. Silk. Mixed Cassimere and French Worsted Suits (self in Sacks and d-Buiton Cutaways) that never cost a cent less than $28.00 to manufacture, at the ridiculous price of

FOURTEEN DOLLARS PER SUIT.

Now, right here we'll mention that we expected to get about $40 for these suits, and indeed we sold hundreds of 'em at that price during "THE SEASON," but now "it's disterent," Trade is dull. The "season" is over, and to do business we've get to make it an object for you to BUE.

Now, we don't propose to say much about these suits. It don't take "talk" to sell'em. THEY SELL because they're worth about THET SELL because they're worth about three times what we ask for 'em. They include all those fashionable "FLAIDS," "CHECKS," and "STRIPES" of rough heavy Scotch goods, which is considered 'just the thing" by the uptows swells. A merchant tailor would charge you $40 to $50 for one of these suits and then not $5 you as well as we do. To tell the truth, we're going to almost make a "GIFT EM. TERPRISE" out of this "Suit Saile," but we expect YOU tevery one of you who is fortunate enough to purchase one) to do about fifty deliars' worth of advertising for us by telling your friends that you got your "Good Ciothes" from A. H. King & Co., The Lending American Ciothiers, 697 and 639 Broadway. 629 Broadway.

Mr. King suggests that we might as well "throw in" a few hundred Overcoats and Cape Coats in order to make things "real lively," and as RE has to foot the bills we'll act on his suggestion, and " he" they
